Who: Any man, 18 and up. Bring friends, co-workers, dads, sons, etc. You don't need to be an Army Ranger to participate; if you have a love for adventure, you'll have fun.

Where: Our base will be Pocono Plateau campground in Cresco, Pa.

Why: Because some men feel closer to God when things are moving at almost 200 miles an hour. Daily devotions will keep us focused on the real "finish line."

Cost: $250 or less, depending on final numbers attending. Includes all admissions and activities and most meals.

When: The fun begins officially on Saturday at 9:30am and ends after the race on Sunday. We anticipate being home by 9pm. We can go up on Friday night for a small extra charge.

How: Get a $135 check to Kip Bollinger (249-7359; kmb81348@comcast.net; he has a mailbox in the church office) by April 18. This non-refundable deposit reserves your spot on the trip and at the track.

Questions: Pastor Jeff (717-243-4571; Jeff@GrowWithSecond.org)
